SC Caucus Expels Douglassite

Bourcier Expulsion 1st Action Against 'Rebels' of Party

Expulsion of A. V. Bourcier, Social Credit MLA for Lac St. Anne, from the party caucus today marked first official action against Douglassite Social Crediters in Alberta.

All Social Credit members of the legislature in the city attended the caucus. There were about 30 at the caucus.

James Hartley, M.L.A., said the caucus and minister of education or of William Tomlin, M.L.A. for Wainwright, were the only two Douglassite Social Crediters.

At one point, Mr. Hartley said that the caucus was not necessary because the floor of the house in the next session.

New Power Vote Sought

Another Plebiscite on the Question of Public Ownership of the R.C.M.P.

Another plebiscite on the question of public ownership of the R.C.M.P. is being planned by the Alberta Farmers' Union.

Official results of the Aug. 17 poll on whether electric power should be publicly produced and distributed or remain in the hands of private owners was announced Thursday.

These showed private enterprise to have won by the narrow margin of 151 votes.

Mr. Stimpfle predicted the power question would be subject of lively debate at the forthcoming joint A.F.U.-C.P.A. convention in Calgary in January.

Both the A.F.U. and C.P.A. have long been in favor of public ownership of power, the A.F.U. president said.

"We have always been convinced that private ownership cannot install electrification services in many sections of the province because private companies are naturally concerned first and last with making profits. Lines will therefore not be run to districts where it is felt a profit cannot be made."

QUESTIONS RESOLVED
The A.F.U. president also thought "it strange" that neither the A.F.U. nor the C.P.A. were required to obtain a final result on the power plebiscite.

"I noticed that where weals of M.L.A.s were concerned, even in far-flung districts, results were obtained in a very short time."

Winter Weather Hits Edmonton

The icy hand of winter was reaching out from the black fastness of the Yukon today, threatening to seize Edmonton in its freezing grip.

Heretofore the end of a prolonged spell of balmy November weather was a chilling sign in the thermometer at Snag, Yukon Territory, where the mercury dropped to 39 below zero, a new record for the winter to date.

CONTINENTS' COLDEST
Snag, a weather station and about 1,000 air miles northwest of Edmonton, last February recorded an all-time low record for North America. The official low was 81 below but the mercury actually dropped to 83 below on an improved scale.

The weatherman here coldly announced: "The minimum this morning was 39 and that's the warmest it gets to be all day."

The weather bureau reports a five below zero at Edmonton tonight. High temperature tomorrow is expected to be at the seven zero mark.

At one o'clock this afternoon the mercury stood at 14 degrees below a light snow swirled with a north wind through the downtown district.

Biting north wind will sweep down on Alberta this afternoon, bringing intermittent snows and lower temperatures for the Edmonton area.

The spreading northern cold front had enveloped Eastern Alaska, Yukon and North West Territories.

Dawson City reported 43 below at Whitehorse temperature dipped to 38 below while Alaskan also shuddered in 33 below temperature.

Norman Wells experienced a low of 22 below zero.

On Nov. 26 of last year Edmonton was enjoying a buyout 41 above.

Suicide of Japs Guarded Against

Ex-Premier Tojo, Six Others Are Being Closely Watched

TOKYO, Nov. 26.—(BUP)—Former premier Hideki Tojo and six other condemned Japanese war lords are being held under individual guard at Sugamo prison to prevent possible attempts at suicide before their execution, it was reported today.

Although other prisoners are placed two to a cell, Tojo and the other six have been moved from the first floor to separate cells on the third floor.

SEPARATE GUARDS

There is a guard for each prisoner. At night the doors to each cell are opened so guards may enter quickly if any of the prisoners attempt suicide. All are required to sleep with their heads in view at all times.

Routine checks are made throughout the night to see that they are breathing properly. Needs by extra cells are filled with medical equipment and soldiers, trained in first aid, are on hand.

It is expected that Tojo and his four condemned cohorts will die on the six new gallies that will be put up as a single raised platform with four separate sets of stairs.

It is understood that former prime minister Kato Hirota is the most dejected among the seven condemned men. He had expected to die by the sword.

SHOEMAKER GETS LETTER FROM PALACE

VANCOUVER, Nov. 26.—Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip yesterday made William Valls "the happiest man in the West Hastings district."

The 26-year-old cobbler who "bails" from the same place as Prince Philip "received a letter" expressing "sincere thanks" for his personal congratulations on the birth of Princess Elizabeth's son.

Written on Buckingham Palace stationery and embellished with the royal coat-of-arms, the very important document "will have no surer place than Valls's shop."

The result of this favour, he added, "was that if it hadn't been for the RCAF search party and many graves, we'd have been lost for good."

Apprehending with Capt. Custer was Capt. Sir Robert Stirling-Imilton, naval adviser to the United Kingdom high commissioner. Both recounted their experiences to Ashbury students.

Others aboard the craft were Custer's aide, Charles Wilson of Oshawa, Ont., U.S. army master sergeant J. Scallie of Cambridge, Wis., and chief petty officer Jack Karpis of Tucson, Ariz.

Alta, association president, told the meeting other Western Canada executives felt the British Columbia ferry system were definite handicaps in a first class trans-Canada highway system.

The B.C. executives present agreed with this viewpoint, and unanimously agreed to call this matter to the immediate attention of Hon. E. C. Carson, minister of public works.

It was recommended that surveys be made along the southern route, so that early construction could be implemented.

J. A. Bracken of Nelson was appointed secretary of the association.

The United States naval aircraft, which crashed in northern Manitoba in mid-September was not properly equipped.

He told Ashbury College students yesterday he and his companions were equipped with a plane that had stayed close to the ground for such flights.

He added, "that if it hadn't been for the RCAF search party and many graves, we'd have been lost for good."

Crime-Type Comic Books To Come Under Fire Here

Edmonton's Home and School Council executive marshalled forces Thursday preparatory to supporting a battle against sex and crime-type comics.

Its recommendation to the next general council meeting in January will seek the support of home and school association locals in Edmonton for "study area action" on the comic book question.

Meanwhile a list of undesirable comic books, result of a study by the British Columbia Parent Teachers Association, will be made available to the Edmonton group.

BOYCOTT DISCUSSED

All of the Alberta Pharmaceutical Association in withdrawing salacious juvenile literature from public sale was also suggested as a possible solution to the problem.

Boycotting of comic book magazines of undesirable type was discussed by the group.

Discussion of the current drive against crime and sex type comic books was part of the executive committee meeting at the Public Library Thursday.

Restricted by the association's constitution which bars the executive council from introducing resolutions, the meeting limited its definite action to a motion recommending study and action on the comic book question by Edmonton locals.

But unofficially, executive members gave unanimous approval to the campaign to curtail distribution of sex and crime type comics.

Man And Wife Committed On Entry Charge

An Edmonton man and his wife who were charged with shopbreaking before Magistrate A. L. Miller city police court Thursday were committed for trial in supreme court.

The pair are George and Irene Nelson, who live in the Stevens rooming house.

Bail for Mrs. Nelson was set at $1,000, but Nelson will be held in custody.

The pair are charged with breaking and entering the Hanna Reid store, which was at 1380 Jasper avenue on the night of Nov. 4.

Main witness in the case was RCMP Cpl. Herbert Silver, who said that he searched the rooms of the accused on Oct. 28. He told the jury that he found two punches in a drawer and marked them, and then identified a punch picked up in the store as being one of the two.

Small Hall, proprietor of the store, said entry had been gained by breaking glass in the front door, and that narcotics and chocolate bars were stolen.

In the subsequent years he was engaged as a freighting contractor and in the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway to Prince George.

He was later in the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway to Prince George and in the North West Territories.

He was married to a Miss Mary Archibald Brownlie, also of Woodville, Ont.

Military Note

EXPRESS WORKER READY TO RETIRE

A burning ambition to drive a horse lured William C. Cranston into a railway express career 47 years ago.

Now Bill Cranston admits the "old grey mare" isn't what she used to be some 29 long years ago, but he himself is sound as a bell, although retiring from the railway express service on Dec. 10.

For the past nine years, Cranston has been superintendent of Canadian National Railway Express department and Trans-Canada Air-Line Express Services in Edmonton. His retirement is in conformity with the rule that calls for stepping down at the age of 65.

Mr. Cranston recently recalled how he got headed in the direction of an express career nearly 50 years ago.

"It was when I was still going to school in Galt, Ont.," he said. "I used to see the express wagons going down the street. The Dominion Express (C.N.R.) wagon was drawn by a black horse and Canadian (Grand Trunk Pacific) Express by a bay horse."

"I was determined that one day I would drive one of those horses, and I did."

Joining the Canadian Express Company staff as a driver, Cranston advanced steadily, serving as clerk, railway express messenger and agent in many eastern cities.

Coming west in 1907, Mr. Cranston was stationed at Saskatoon, Regina, Winnipeg and Vancouver for the next three years. He also served as agent at Saskatoon, Regina, Winnipeg and Vancouver.

For many years Mr. Cranston has been an active member of the Kiwanis Club and a regular attendant at church services in Robertson United Church.

He is an uncle of Bobby Crane, professional hockey player.

Following his retirement, the express official will make his home at 2901 West 34 street, Vancouver with Mrs. Cranston.

License Suspended, City Man Jailed
Operating a car after his driver's license was suspended will cost George R. Schroff of 13300 Fort Road 14 days in jail and a fine of $50 on an additional charge of motor vehicle.

The accused's license was suspended for three months on Oct. 1.

He told court that he had been operating the car for a man named Henry and didn't know it was stolen until he was returning to Edmonton when he picked up.

THIS WON'T HURT—MUCH Dentistry is Painless (Almost) Say Dentists

"Two officials of the Canadian Dental Association, who last week toured the city, today dispelled several popular theories about dentists and dentistry."

Dr. Howard J. Merkle, Winnipeg, president of the Canadian Dental Association and Dr. Don W. Gullett, Toronto, secretary of the same group, discussed the matter with the public in an interview.

Drinking water containing a fluorine probably won't hurt to prevent tooth decay, despite publicity of the matter which has been given, the dentists said.

On the other hand, oral use of fluoride compounds by dentists familiar with the technique may reduce tooth decay by as much as 80 per cent, some experiments show.

Second popular theory that all people would have adequate dental care if free service were provided was belied by a similar blow from the visiting officials.

"At least 75 per cent of Canadians aren't receiving adequate dental care," Dr. Gullett said. But even if a state medicine system made dental care free to the public, many people would still get a great deal of distance between themselves and dental offices, he added.

A high percentage of the public hasn't been educated to appreciate the value of dental care, and in addition, many people still believe that the dentist's office is a chronicle of fortune tellers, the officials indicated.

"Modern dentistry is practically painless; the patient has no reason to fear a visit to the dentist," in Edmonton to confer with officials of the Alberta Dental Association, Dr. Gullett and Dr. Merkle, secretary of the association, said.

Dr. Gullett said that the general public went by the hearsay when the visiting dentist said: "Modern dentistry is practically painless; the patient has no reason to fear a visit to the dentist."

Calgary Driver Freed In Manslaughter Case

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., Nov. 26.—(CP)—Arthur Gray Mackie, 32, of Calgary, was acquitted yesterday on a manslaughter charge following a day-long trial in Alberta supreme court here before Mr. Justice Hugh John MacDonald.

The charge arose following the death in a highway accident near here Sept. 23 of William Shulak of Calgary.

Mackie's acquittal came after the crown had placed 17 witnesses on the stand and after the accused was called to the stand as the sole defence witness.

The accused explained that in the course of his employment he left Calgary Sept. 23 to drive to Lethbridge. On the outskirts of Calgary he stopped to pick up two men who were waiting for a ride, Shulak and Edward Wittig, of Trail, B.C. The accident happened 26 miles west of Macleod.

Mackie saw a truck ahead of him and decided to pass it. On passing

European Union Hopes Brighter

Gap Between British And French Views Narrowed

LONDON, Nov. 26.—(Reuters)—On the eve of the five-power meeting in Paris of the United Nations committee of Western Union to discuss developing closer political ties between European countries, there are signs that the gap between British and Franco-Belgian views has been considerably narrowed.

The European movement, representing the five principal international bodies working towards united Europe, released in London yesterday the text of a memorandum which it will submit to the Paris meeting.

This memorandum contains two significant points. It re-defines the "limited but immediately realizable proposal" for a European assembly by stating it should be made clear "it is not a federal parliament, nor even a constituent or pre-constituent assembly, and that it possesses no legislative or constitutional powers."

Secondly it gives the backing of the European movement to the British government proposal, tabled at the meeting of the consultative council of western union in Paris last month for the immediate creation of a European council of ministers, provided that "it is clearly regarded as an addition and not as an alternative to the consultative assembly."

The memorandum urges that extreme proposals for immediate creation of a European parliament with overriding rights over sovereign governments, which have been steadily opposed by the British government on grounds that they are premature, have been abandoned in favor of a purely consultative assembly with executive power still in the hands of sovereign governments.

Immediate Strike Settlement Urged

REGINA, Nov. 26.—(CP)—Neither the Saskatchewan government nor 150 striking government insurance office employees budged yesterday and the only development came in a call from a union official for immediate settlement of the strike.

I. A. Gardiner, president of the Saskatchewan Federation of Labor (SCL), claimed in a statement, "it would appear temperamental folly" to allow the strike to continue "without making a substantial offer to the employees to seek an end to the present deadlock."

Mason Is Daddy

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 26.—(AP)—A seven-year-old, 14-ounce daughter was born yesterday to Pamela Rollins, author-actress-wife of British actor James Mason, their first child. It was named Portland, after Portland Hoffa, wife of radio comedian Fred Allen.

Vancouver Landslide Brings Power Ration

JORDAN RIVER, B.C., Nov. 26.—(CP)—Torrential rains caused a landslide through a water flume of the British Columbia Electric Railway Company power plant here today, putting the southern end of Vancouver Island on short power rations for at least 48 hours.

The landslide occurred about two miles from the power station at Port Moody, on Artificial Lake. Seventy-five feet of the huge wooden flume which brings water from a diversion dam five miles up Jordan River valley, were swept away.

Settlement Near In Coast Strike

Longshoremen, Employers Reach Agreement On Terms

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Agreement on terms for a settlement of the 80-day Pacific Coast maritime strike was announced yesterday by the International Longshoremen's Union (CIO), and the Waterfront Employers Association.

In a joint announcement, the ILWU and the WEA said they had reached an agreement which will "recommend to their respective memberships."

VACATION BENEFITS
They agreed upon a 15-cent hourly wage increase, effective upon wage resumption. New vacation benefits include one week for men working 800 hours in the previous year and two weeks for those with 1,304 hours in their credit.

The tie-up, which began Sept. 2, has cost an employer-estimated $4,000,000 a day. The longshoremen had asked for the 15-cent increase with the employers originally offering 10 cents an hour.

The announcement described the new pact as "one based on complete good faith." Union and employer spokesmen joined in the prediction that "this contract and this new spirit can mean a new era for west coast shipping."

The announcement embraced only the longshore phase of the strike. Affected by the strike are the CIO marine cooks and stewards, the independent firm, the CIO radio operators and the marine engineers.

Operations under the peace plan called for a three-year contract to 1951, national CIO contract underwriting and improved grievance machinery.

It was pointed out, however, that the agreement is conditioned only on ratification by membership on both sides.

Master Town Plan Proposed

CALGARY, Nov. 26.—(CP)—The town planning commission recommended to city council yesterday that preparation of a master town plan for the city of Calgary be started as soon as possible in 1949.

Acting city engineer J. Iver Strong said the "fast expansion of the city has brought us to the stage where planning piecemeal is no good. The time has come for an overall survey of the city. There is a shortage of industrial area in town."

"And we are faced with the prospect of finding locations for 1,200 to 1,500 new homes in the coming year. A major plan on paper covering the development of arterial roads, bridges and essential services, is needed."

100 People Flee Vancouver Fire

VANCOUVER, Nov. 26.—(CP)—A hundred tenants fled to safety yesterday when fire threatened Strathmore Lodge, a 100-suite apartment in downtown Vancouver.

Ralph Lightheart, 25-year-old owner, and a tenant fought the flames in a fourth-story suite until arrival of firemen. Damage was estimated at $6,000.

Many tenants, including women and children, fled down fire escapes to the street as Lightheart knuckled down a door and battled the flames with a hand extinguisher.

In 1927 eight persons died in Strathmore Lodge in one of Vancouver's worst fires.

Teachers' Strike Threat Disappears

Blamed Them For Accident
STERLING, Ill., Nov. 26.—(AP)—A motorist has sued two Rock Falls, Ill., policemen for $10,000 contending they did not arrest him in time to prevent an accident.

The suit, filed by Albert D. Martin in circuit court gave this account.

On Nov. 17, 1946, Martin was struck in his car at a filling station in Rock Falls. The two officers were summoned but failed to arrest him, waiting until he had driven onto the highway.

Then in their squad car they forced Martin to halt by cutting in front of him. While the two cars were stopped, a truck banged into them. The impact knocked one of the officers to the pavement and damaged Martin's car and the squad car.

In May, the injured policeman was awarded $4,000 from the insurer. Martin subsequently was convicted of drunken driving and fined $100.

PEIPING, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Chinese newspapers said yesterday Communist occupation forces had forbidden the teaching of English in Madsen schools and colleges and ordered courses in Russian instead.

HEADED BY a cast of superlative players, including Paulette Goddard, Henry Fonda, Jimmy Stewart, Fred MacMurray, Dorothy Lamour and Burgess Meredith, the unique comedy—"On Our Merry Way"—opens at the Rialto theatre today. A rib-tickling story and the starry cast makes the film one of the snazziest comedy hits of the season. Paulette Goddard and Burgess Meredith shown above are featured in the lead roles.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Perhaps you are on of those people who think today's songs aren't what they used to be. Then Frank Sinatra agrees with you.

"Nearly all the loudest I hear these days are the loudest I hear of trash I have ever listened to," says Frankie.

He should know. He has to sing four or five of them every week on the hit parade. But he hints it's not easy work.

"The songs we get are terrible. They're written by a bunch of hillbillies who know nothing about music. They put in bars of music where there shouldn't be any—like Red's version of 'Compulsion.' Then they expect a singer to sing it."

POOR QUALITY
The record has something to do with the poor quality of popular tunes, Frank added.

"The good song writers just are not releasing their tunes, because they can't make money from songs without the aid of records. You can't blame them, because that is their livelihood."

"But that leaves the songwriting business to the amateurs. And the chances of finding a good song from an amateur are one in a million."

The lack of melodies goes deeper than the record ban, asserted Frank.

"In the last two or three years, there haven't been the songs that we heard during the '30s—songs like 'So Nice To Come Home To,' 'Big Black Magic,' 'As Time Goes By,' don't ask me why."

HOW ABOUT THIS?
Maybe it's hard to find something to sing about in these times of housing shortages and world crises. How would this sound—'My Little Gray Home in the West'?

"Where Are You?" or "I Found A Million Dollar Baby in a 35-50 Cent Store?"

The lack of good sentimental songs has caused a change in Frankie's singing style. Seldom does he indulge in the musical stunts—sliding from one note to another—that used to evoke dazzling shrieks from his hookey-eyed listeners. "The new songs aren't suited to that kind of treatment," he explained.

In concert a small-starred newspaper man (Burgess Meredith) who, urged by his ambitious wife (Paulette Goddard), hijacks his editor into giving him a roving reporter's job for one day.

The question suggested by Paulette for this crusade is, "What audience has a little child had upon your life?"

It is while pursuing this subject which opens up so many paths for a good inquiring reporter that Meredith interviews the various actors mentioned. Naturally, all have some extraordinary amusing experiences which they proceed to relate with sparkling gusto.

FINE PERFORMANCES
It's difficult to single out one player for praise, but the humorous scenes since all turn in such unusually likeable performances, yet it is impossible in passing not to offer a word in praise of Burgess Meredith who lies together with his wife in a close without mentioning Dorothy Lamour's devastating impersonation of herself as the girl with the sari and her delightful singing of "The Queen of the Hollywood Islands."

Hilarious Comedy Opens at Rialto

Goddard, Meredith Star In 'On Our Merry Way'

An ingenious and hilarious theme, with brilliant performances and outstanding direction make Benedict Bogosau and Burgess Meredith's production of "On Our Merry Way," which opens at the Rialto theatre today one of the most consistently entertaining comedies of the current season.

After the fashion of the popular "Tales of Manhattan," it is told in a series of episodes and is played by a cast of top-drawers stars including Paulette Goddard, Burgess Meredith, Jimmy Stewart, Fred MacMurray, Henry Fonda, Dorothy Lamour, Hugh Herbert and Victor Moore.

The story angle on "On Our Merry Way" is neatly spiced with satire and is abundantly rich with spontaneous laughter.

Allied Breakout Delayed 45 Days

Eisenhower Reveals Enemy Forced Change In His Plans

This is a condensed serialization of Dwight D. Eisenhower's "Crosstime in Europe." It contains highlights of the book published on Nov. 22, 1948, by Doubleday and Company. Copyrighted by Doubleday and Company. The serialization is in 10 chapters, which will appear daily in The Bulletin—EDITOR.

CHAPTER XVI

The first critical objective of the Normandy campaign, which was to establish a secure beachhead with adequate avenues of supply in the area between Cherbourg and the mouth of the Orne, was fully accomplished by the end of June.

From the beginning it was the conception of Montgomery, Bradley, and myself that eventually the great movement out of the beachhead would be by an enormous left wheel, bringing our front onto the line of the Seine, with the whole area lying between that river and the Loire and as far eastward as Paris in our firm possession.

An important point in this calculation was the line from which we originally intended to execute this wheel. This part of our tactical pronouncements did not work out and required readjustment. The line that we actually held when the breakout began on D plus 50 was approximately that planned for D plus 5.

DIFFERENT STORY

This was a far different story, but one which had to be accepted. Battle is not a one-sided affair. It is a case of action and reaction, action repeated over and over again as contestants seek to gain which they may inflict the greatest position and other advantage by possible damage upon their respective opponents.

In this case the importance of the area to the enemy had caused him to use great force in its defense. Its capture became a temporary impossibility or, if not that, at least an operation to be accomplished at such cost as to be almost prohibitive.

By June 30 Montgomery had finally become convinced, as Bradley and I already had, that the breakout would have to be launched from a more restricted line. His directive of that date clearly stated that the British Second Army on the left would continue its attacks to attract the greatest possible portion of enemy strength, while the American forces, which had captured Cherbourg four days before, would begin stacking southward with a view to final breakout on the right flank.

This, of course, placed upon the American forces a more onerous and irksome task than had at first been anticipated. However, Bradley thoroughly understood the situation, and the moment, and early as June 20 had expressed to me the conviction that the breakout on the right would have to be initiated from positions near St. Lô, rather than from the more southerly line originally planned.

It was all hard and exhausting work, but its accomplishment paid off in big dividends when finally we were ready to go full out against the enemy. During these first three weeks we took 41,000 prisoners. Our casualties totaled 60,771, of whom 8,975 were killed.

TENSE WAITING

Just after the middle of July the United States 1st Army attained, as its position of the front line—St. Lô to the west coast—from which it could launch a powerful assault. At that moment the weather, which had been bad, now abnormally warm and the following week all of us went through a period of agonizing suspense.

Finally on July 25, seven weeks after D-Day, the attack was launched from the approximate line we had expected to hold on D plus 51, striking from Caen through Caumont to St. Lô. A tremendous carpet of air, bombing was placed along the St. Lô sector of the American front and its stunning effect upon the enemy lasted throughout the day. Unfortunately a mistake by part of the bombing forces caused a considerable number of casualties in one battalion of the 9th Division and in the 30th Division, and killed Lieutenant General Lesley McNair, who had come into an observation post to watch the beginning of the attack. His death cast a gloom over all who had known this most able and devoted officer.

CORRECT PREDICTION

Progress on the first day was slow, but that evening General Bradley observed to me that it was always slow going in the early phases of such an attack and expressed the conviction that the next day and thereafter would witness extraordinary advances by our forces. The event proved him to be completely correct. In the following weeks he slashed his way down the base of the peninsula, passing through the bottleneck at Avranches, and launched his columns into the rear of the German forces. At this moment, on Aug. 1, General Patton, with 3rd Army Headquarters, was brought up into the battle to take charge of the operations on the 1st Army's right flank. With a clean and decisive breakthrough achieved, Bradley's immediate problem became that of shifting on the enemy the greatest possible destruction. All else could wait upon his exploitation of this golden opportunity, in the certainty that with the enemy de-

DRYDOCK BLOWN UP

WILHELMSHAVEN, Nov. 26.—(Reuters)—Columns of water about 250 feet into the air when Royal Navy engineers yesterday began blowing up Wilhelmshaven's 80,000-ton drydock, the largest in Europe. The first of 40 tons of explosive charges took the town of the city half two miles away and the ground beneath trembled, but no house collapsed, city authorities said.

Everything else could quickly be set right.

His scheme was to throw every unit he could spare elsewhere directly at the rear of the German forces still in place between Caen and the vicinity of Avranches. In effect, he hoped to encircle the enemy forces, which were still compelled to face generally northward against the Canadians and British.

The battlefield at Falaise, after General Bradley had wheeled around the German First and Seventh Armies, became one of the great "killing grounds" of the war. Forty-eight hours after the Americans had come full circle to close the gap with their British and Canadian allies, General Eisenhower walked across this battlefield and he writes that only Danie could describe the death and destruction he witnessed.

The seventeenth installment of "Crosstime in Europe," which will be published here tomorrow, also describes one of the longest-sustained arguments between General Eisenhower and Prime Minister Churchill in the course of the war. This was over "Dragon," the code word for the landing in the south of France. The dispute on this point has never been told before.

South Hospitals Will Increase Basic Ward Rates

CALGARY, Nov. 26.—(CP)—Increases ranging from $1 to $1.50 a day in basic ward rates at the Calgary General Hospital for non-residents of the city were approved last night by the Calgary Hospital Board.

Public ward rates were boosted $1 and semi-private and private wards by $1.50 a day. The increases were made non-effective to city residents by increasing related to them by the amount of the increase. The new rates will be $3.50 per day for general wards, $7.00 per day for semi-private wards, and $8.50, $10.50 or $16.00 per day for private wards.

A resident of Calgary for the purpose of securing a release is classified as one who has lived within the corporate limits of the city for a period of 12 consecutive months within the 2 years prior to entering hospital.

VALUABLE INVENTION

In this dilemma an American sergeant named Cain came forth with a simple invention that restored the effectiveness of the tank and gave a tremendous boost to morale throughout the Army. It consisted merely in fastening to the front of the tank two sturdy blades of steel which, acting somewhat as scythes, cut through the bank of earth and before the tank could thrust skyward, it was impossible to bring guns to bear upon the enemy; crews were helpless to defend themselves or to destroy the German.

A feature of the incident from which our soldiers derived a gleeful satisfaction was the steel for the cutting blades was obtained from the obstacles which the Germans had installed so previously over the beaches of Normandy.

FAMILY GATHERING at the home of Simon Hanson on his farm one mile north of Valhalla Center resulted in all 10 of the pioneer farmer's children—five girls and five boys—being present. Hanson, who is shown in the center of the group immigrated to Canada from Norway in 1900 with his wife and four children and took up homesteading at Valhalla Center. All Hanson's children are married and reside in the district.

Red Satin Loungers Make Elegant Gift

By Bea Thrifty

Eclectic elegance of red satin Chinese lounging pyjamas would make a gift practically a hussy.

But it's fun to feel like a hussy just once in a while... and wouldn't it be nice if Santa Claus tucked a pair under the Christmas tree come Dec. 25?

It would be nice but expensive for the old gentleman (1500) ... cause he'll have to pay $10.95 for a two-piece outfit and $24.95 for a three-piece (including the quilted coffee coat).

But they shore am purty ...

The Snow Maiden is playing hard to get this year but it won't be long before she'll be out at the sidewalk with the old snow shovel.

And of course, his best to be prepared in advance for these things. What if he should find out that he's not the smartest overboard right about now.

There are the ever-faithful fur-trimmed velvet jackets selling at the $5 mark ... and even more for new styles. Public fur-trimmed flight boot efforts that fit any type heel selling for $45.00 million boots of red, green, brown ... and fleece-lined ... for $55.00.

Excuse for slippers, cold feet this year.

Slippers are a time of thinking given when you buy a set of gifts for your friends.

You can buy them just a shade under $5.

For Quick Cough Relief, Mix This Syrup, at Home

There'll be a quick relief for you and your winter cough can be relieved when you try this well known recipe. It is universally used throughout Canada because it gives such quick relief. It's no trouble at all to make, and costs but a trifle.

Take a 16 ounce bottle, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex into it, fill up with cranberry sugar syrup 10 ml. 12 ounces. Syrup is really made with 2 cups of sugar and 1 cup of water. Stirred a few moments until dissolved. Or you could use 1/2 cup of sugar and 1/2 cup of water. This would be a good recipe for a quick relief for your winter cough. It's no trouble at all to make, and costs but a trifle.

Quickly you'll find its power. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the air passages, and soothes the irritated membranes. This is why it brings such quick relief.

There is a special concentration of menthol, eucalyptus, and other ingredients, in concentrated form, well known for its soothing effect on throat irritations. Most children like it, and it does not cause any harm.

BRIDGE

In Either Bridge

Or Win, All Is All

By G. M. McKenney

One of the latest boys on Broadway is Billy Thrill, who has coached many of America's outstanding players. His biggest thrill, outside of "winning" is to see some youngster make the top of the ladder of success.

Although bridge stories generally cannot be repeated with the same effect as when they originally happened, I want to tell you one about Billy. We finally got him in a ladder game, and today's hand came up.

In response to Billy's opening bid, my four no trump was made to show two aces. When Billy bid five hearts, I assumed that he was showing me two aces that was why I wasted no time in going to seven spades.

WHY GROW OLD

Strategic Trimming With Fur Style News

By Josephine Lowman

It was certainly good news to me, and I imagine to many of you, to learn from the fashion experts that fur-trimmed coats and coats are high style. With full length furs as costly as they are this is news relieving information.

When you see your favorite move across or an attractive friend wearing an outfit with fur trimmed, you will see the possibilities of fur or a fur-trimmed coat, remember your fur-trimmed coat. Fur-trimmed coats are more slimming than bulky fur coats but there is one general rule to remember in fur-trimmed coats.

When you wish to make your face or your figure look slimmer, do not place high spots, or spots of interest, for spots. In other words, if you are going to wear fur on your pockets be sure that the pockets are not too far out towards the outer edges of your silhouette. This should be closer to the center of your body. This is true even of the plain pocket. If your face is wide you should apply your rouse fairly close to your nose. If you place the color at the outer edges of your face it will make it look wider. Women with broad faces should not wear their hair fluffed out at the sides for this reason.

Unless you have a slim waist, do not decorate your belts with fur. Also wear a narrow belt rather than a wide one. Those fascinating wide belts are for the very slim.

If you are overweight and wish to look more petite, do not wear your clothes too tightly fitted because this emphasizes the rolls and bulges.

All of these little tricks are most helpful in giving our most attractive impression.

If you would like to have my "What's Going On" which gives you suggestions about minimizing deep-set eyes, making small eyes look larger, the application of lipstick and lots of other make-up tricks, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Both food and fashions hold a warm tender spot in the heart of femininity.

So a group of happy-thinking gals have gathered their energies together to produce this plan:

Saturday afternoon fashion shows in the Embassy Room... where Milady may sip a cup of tea and munch on a goodie while she watches the parade of fashions.

Spartan idea this. And more about it later.

Spring Styles Appear

MONTREAL, Nov. 25.—(CP)—The busy fashion-veer people came out today with previews of their newest and most artistic creations in such apparel as shoes, gloves, sportswear, rainwear, and well, coats and brasieres.

The new styles will climb right up and over your heads, we are told, with a minimum of bulk and a maximum of styling. In your choice of costume colors, too.

In a preview showing the Dior (of Quebec) there were combinations of suede and leather as well as combinations of colors.

The glove show (by Moulton) forecast the 1949 fashion right down to the finger tips. The style there was "before five and after five."

The most attractive costume gloves were of finest kid and in a rainbow of colors with an "above-the-wrist interest." In styling, handlets and gauntlet adaptations were the leaders.

The sportswear and rainwear showing (by Chene) featured brilliant colors. Sports coats had piping—sustained, achieved by belting full or straight-cut coats.

At the forest show the Parfian Court Co., the commentators told about the smooth super all-ounce with "free life" on belting in streamlining a heavy figure. For the younger girl there was one of those thin, stretchy things unadorned by zipper.

REMINISCING with her daughter, Mrs. Ian McBride, whom she is visiting in Edmonton, is Mrs. Claude E. Palmer, of Portland, Ore. Visitors in Edmonton for several days, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer were entertained Thursday at an informal dinner party at the home of Hon. Mr. Justice Boyd McBride and Mrs. McBride, on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Co-Eds Shell Out At Waw-Waw Time

Wacky week-end is in store for students at the University of Alberta Dec. 3 to 5. Annual event on the campus Waw-Waw, Alberta's adaptation of Sadie Hawkins, means that it's the co-eds who are required to pay.

Three days of fun and games are scheduled by director Les Warden. But it all means that coeds will be shaking piggy banks, digging deep into the coffers for needed copage.

Trolley Tramp will light the fuse of the gala weekend Dec. 3. Six chartered trolleys will leave the south side at 7:30 that evening for a ride "round Edmonton." Trolleys will come complete with entertainers and concession vendors.

Disembarking, girls and their dates will head for the Education gym and a program of sparkling entertainment. Snacks, quiz and musical numbers are scheduled.

Full fashioned hot swirl with a Waw-Waw twist will be held following the variety show. Following the traditions of the weekend-end the boys who will bring the daintily prepared lunches. Committee will supply the coffee.

Gaily decorated variety ball will be the scene of a mammoth dance. Saturday evening when Morris Dance's orchestra will be in attendance.

Given professors are to be included in the frolic. With the approval of the Students' Council co-eds may sport their leotards to Tuck and Cat for the last 15 minutes of the 9 and 10 o'clock lectures.

Security stopping. But the fellows on the campus may be excited at any time at all.

Mostly I've been a good girl this year and would like:

A DRESS—One like I saw in the window at Walk-Rite. It was dark blue velvet with a skirt that swirls way out. They have soft wool, too—and easily folded.

A BLOUSE—Seems like I can't sleep now in a new blouse Santa. Walk-Rite have the prettiest ones in town. There are fuzzy ones with long sleeves and ruffles and smart tailored ones that Mom calls "practical."

A SKIRT—I'd like a skirt like Judy's. She got hers at the Walk-Rite. It's a pretty pleated plaid with shoulder straps. They have lots of fared ones, too, in bright plaids and soft shades.

A JUMPER—Maybe I don't really need a jumper. Santa, but the ones at the Walk-Rite are so pretty. Judy and I were looking at them. She likes the fared and pleated plaids but for real glamour, I'd choose a courtly velvet one.

That's all for now, Santa. But next week I'll be writing again to tell you what my baby sister would like. She's too little to write herself.

Love and kisses from

Jo Anne

CHRISTMAS WEDDING is foreseen in the announcement made by Mr. and Mrs. Leon D. Blais, of the engagement of their daughter Jocelyne Marie to G. Erik Wigeland, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Botzow-Wigeland, all of Edmonton. The wedding will take place in St. Joachim's church Dec. 27.

Homemakers' Holiday Chores Lightened With Assistance of "Helpful Aunts"

Ooohhh... that aching back! It's still a month away from Christmas but already poor Mrs. Average Homemaker is so busy as busy can be... and so tired.

Over and above all the daily household chores there is the extra Christmas baking, shopping, sewing and planning for the family's activities during the busy Yuletide season.

Much more work than there are hours in a day. But there is a solution to this problem... a simple solution.

There is a bureau of "Helpful Aunts," organized in Edmonton by Mrs. Joy Lusk, which specializes in babysitting, shopping for children, ironing, housework, even sewing and mending.

Each woman registered at the bureau is over 25 years of age and has had experience with children and housework. Mrs. Dick chooses her "Helpful Aunts" for their motherliness, dependability and cheerful capability.

Mrs. Dick reports she has a reduced list of baby sitters for New Year's Eve now... but there are more "Helpful Aunts" available to relieve young parents from their plight.

There are more problems in New Year's Eve parties than a new frock and a place to go... there is the problem of "who on earth can we find to look after the children?"

But a motherly, reliable "Helpful Aunt" is just the solution, isn't it? Mrs. Dick organized a similar bureau in London, Eng., during the war years. It proved a blessing, blinding until the apologetic and a relief to harassed mothers.

Local CSC Fund Newly Organized

Local Council of Women Hold General Meeting at Y

An Edmonton Executive for the Canadian Save the Children Fund has been organized.

This was announced by Mrs. W. H. Stewart at a general meeting of the Local Council of Women, held Thursday in the YWCA.

The Edmonton organization is the result of the recent visit to Edmonton of Mrs. R. T. Towner, field secretary of the fund.

G. B. Stuart, whose office is in the YWCA, will be the first chairman, and Mrs. Frank Conroy is treasurer. Donations of children's clothing can be left at the hall and members of the Royal Purple will be in charge of packing and shipping the bundles.

Business arising out of the minutes, which was discussed, included the proposed increase in street railway fares, and the appointment of a woman to city board.

Mrs. C. Hargreaves, convener of the cinema and printed matter committee, was nominated to organize a radio forum which would air the views of the Council.

Reports were given by Mrs. Cora Chasman, affiliation secretary, and Mrs. J. A. Clarke, convener of the housing committee.

"Working for the World We Want" was the theme of the international, semi-annual convention described by Mrs. E. P. Wellwood at the Council meeting.

Mrs. Wellwood was one of 100 Canadian and American delegates who attended the convention in Liverpool, England, along with 140 delegates from 14 other countries.

Subjects at the convention were working for the world we want through action to community cooperation and industry. Speakers were Mrs. Geoffrey Fisher, wife of the Archbishop of Canterbury, R. M. P. Adams, OBE, MA, and E. W. Barlow, CBE, DSO.

Parents Can Direct Child's Personality

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

It is satisfying to every individual to have a distinctive personality. No one wants to be a nonentity.

Being good in too often a barren pastime, while being naughty provides excitement, inspires parental notice and gives them the personality of "mischievous."

Mrs. M. writes: "My three-year-old grandson is a healthy, amiable child and very smart for his age. But, you just can't teach him obedience. We have tried every punishment, but he has showered him with affection, but he is often sassy and wilful."

"If he takes a notion, he will not come after school until it is dark and when he is reprimanded he says, 'The dogs made him go out of his way.' He promises to come home the next day but never quite makes it."

"Once he took money lying on a table and said he found it. He has another 15 months until he is 10, but the episode almost too find but you never know what to expect at this age."

Naturally, he has to be different from his brother, who, no doubt, is held up as a model. Children resent this and go to any lengths to be different.

At five, he is not temperamental and money should not be left lying around. He should have his own money for his own needs.

His mother should meet him at school and walk home with him, explaining that when he is old enough to come home and report first, before going visiting, she will not have to do this.

Try treating him for everything good and fight her does and being blind as possible to his obvious misbehavior. No one expects perfect obedience of a child but it is a mistake to make his misbehavior the most important fact of his personality.

Give him other opportunities to be outstanding, encourage his

'IB' Better Than 'IQ' For Girls

LISTEN GIRLS! If you have an IQ, you can find out your IQ. Forget your A.B. get rid of your I.Q.D. and still come out with S.A. In case any of your I.Q.D.'s are in the I.B. stands for Inner Beauty.

The girls who discovered it is internationally known artist and portrait painter Paul Cezanne whose works have been exhibited in famous museums throughout the world. According to Cezanne, you must have to have the face that launched a thousand ships (if you have "Inner Beauty"). Not that he scorns beauty, but beauty isn't enough.

The girls with the Inner Beauty, in his opinion, include, among others, two Hollywood personalities—Greta Garbo and Katharine Grayson, singing star of "The Kissing Bandit."

Then he lists Lady Baden-Powell, founder of the Girl Scouts; Katharine Corbitt, Madame Chiang Kai-shek; Princess Margaret Rose, Juliana Queen of Holland; Joan of Arc; Maria Martinez, famous Indian artist at San Ildefonso Pueblo, and his wife Thora Cope.

"Arrange a thin slice of Bermuda onion on a round of toast, drizzle with salt and pepper, add a drop of tabasco. On top place yellow cheese, grated and mixed in 5 parts with Worcestershire sauce, mustard and salt. Place in oven just long enough to melt cheese."

Husband's Mother Should Warn Wife

DEAR MISS DIX—My son is an intelligent man of refined tastes and habits. He is successful in business and provides his wife with a lovely home and all the comforts of life.

She is a good woman and loved and loved him very much, but she has no regard for the niceties of life. She keeps a filthy home and is very untidy about her person.

She doesn't even bother to comb her hair and put on a clean dress to greet her husband when he comes home from work. The meals that she puts before him are not fit to eat and the table linen is always soiled.

My son is becoming disgusted with his wife and is ceasing to care for her. He stays away from home as much as he can, and I fear he is falling in love with a friend of his wife's who is trim and tidy and a good housekeeper.

What can I do to try to preserve my son's happiness and his home? A MOTHER.

Answer: Your son's wife needs a job that will jar her wisdom teeth loose and it seems to me that you are the one who will have to administer it, which is a pity, as a mother-in-law are not so popular that they can afford to be bearers of bad news.

TRUTH MUST BE TOLD. However, it is not so much being persona grata with your son's wife as saving him and his home that concerns you; and while it may, I tend your daughter-in-law to be told a few plain truths, the time will come when she will thank you and realize that you have been her best friend.

Tell her that if she wants to suit her husband and keep out of the divorce courts, she has to be up and doing and on her job every minute.

Certainly no married woman can call it a day and knock off work when she gets married.

As a matter of fact, her labor just begins because it is a million times more difficult to keep a husband interested and satisfied and to an admiring attitude than it was a sweetheart.

The lazy, slothful wife who is too indolent to keep herself clean, or give her husband good food, or turn out a workmanlike job of housekeeping is bound to lose her husband.

Maybe if you tell your daughter-in-law that she is about to lose out to a better woman, she will wake up and get busy on her job.

Party Precedes Fatal Brawl, Witness Says

CALGARY, Nov. 26.—(CP)—Three witnesses testified yesterday that a day-long drinking party preceded a fatal brawl that ended in the death of Albert Jensen, 43.

The witnesses, two women and a man, were testifying in police court at a preliminary hearing of a charge of murder against Evelyn Paquette, 30-year-old Calgary waitress. Previous witnesses testified that accused victim Jensen over the head with a wine bottle last Oct. 2 during a brawl in the Pekin Cafe in East Calgary.

All three witnesses said they had been on a drinking party with Jensen and accused, Edna Roberts, an attractive waitress at the cafe, said "we drank all day last Oct. 2 during a party. We never stopped." She said she and her friends had consumed seven bottles of whiskey and wine.

Leo McDonald and Victoria Dumont, the two other witnesses, both said they were "too drunk" to see what happened.

Elizabeth Stoenman, roommate of the dead man, "was supposed to get married." The case was adjourned until Monday.

Cricketer Dies

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Nov. 26.—(CP)—Charles S. Morrison, Kingston solicitor and an outstanding West India cricket player of three decades ago, died yesterday.

MONTREAL, Nov. 26.—Walter S. Thompson, director of public relations and advertising, Canadian National Railways and Trans-Canada Air Lines, is relinquishing his air line activities as of Dec. 31, it was announced yesterday, following a meeting of the R.C.A. board of directors. He will devote his full time and attention to the railway and its other auxiliary services.

Town Water System

CARLTON PLACE, Nov. 26.—(CP)—Another milestone in the history of this southern Alberta town was marked Wednesday when Mayor William Cooper opened the town's new $100,000 water system. It is expected that a new dam to guarantee a steady supply of water will be constructed next year. The present dam was badly damaged by floods last spring.

11 BOMBS SET OFF

PARIS, Nov. 26.—(Reuters)—A 1,000-pound bomb, set off by a radio fire, exploded yesterday at the St. Jacques de la Lande airfield near Rennes, western France. Two other bombs exploded later, setting fire to a nearby farm house, destroying a hangar and breaking many windows in the town of Rennes. No one was injured.

Quebec City Bans Outdoor Stairs

QUEBEC, Nov. 26.—(CP)—Outdoor stairways for two and three storey flats "are a sin against good taste," the city planning department believes and Quebec house builders have been told such stairways will no longer be tolerated on new houses.

Autopsy Held In Model's Death

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—(AP)—An autopsy revealed yesterday that general venereal congestion caused the death of a red-haired, hazel-eyed Barbara Vance, a young model whose body was found in her hotel room clad only in black lingerie. The young woman, who registered at the hotel Mayfair last Sunday, was found dead Wednesday night. The medical examiner said exact cause of death would not be known pending a chemical analysis of the organs.

Increases Sought

MONTREAL, Nov. 26.—(CP)—Spokesmen for the United Textile Workers (A.F.) said today that wage increases averaging 20 cents an hour will be asked on behalf of 20,000 textile workers in Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime provinces when new agreements come up for discussion next year.

600 More Hospital Beds For Vancouver

VICTORIA, Nov. 26.—(CP)—Health Minister Pearson today had an answer for W. L. Goldard, Vancouver salesman, who says he will refuse to pay his B.C. hospital insurance premium without a guarantee of service.

Plans for 600 new hospital beds in the metropolitan Vancouver area, on which work is expected to start next year, now are under consideration, Mr. Pearson said. In addition, an $800,000 extension of Vancouver General Hospital has been under discussion some time. It would be a convalescent hospital.

Mr. Goldard challenged the right of the government to collect premiums for the hospital plan, charging it could not assure the necessary hospital beds in Vancouver. Premium payments range from $15 a year for single persons to $30 for married persons with two or more dependents.

India, Pakistan Issue Threats Over Kashmir

PARIS, Nov. 26.—(AP)—India and Pakistan yesterday threatened each other with all-out war over Kashmir, and the United Nations Security Council urged both sides to keep calm and accept mediation. Sir Zafulla Khan, Pakistan delegate, told the council that Indian offensives last week forced 80,000 Moslem refugees into flight from Kashmir, and that Pakistan must set the situation "deteriorates" further.

India's war for single persons to $30 for married persons with two or more dependents.
